ceo's these days are my age

arman's personality is very cheerful, I think

PROS:

- cheerful, laidback.
- comfortable to be vulnerable with.
- very empathetic, sensitive.
- outgoing.
- ~~very understanding~~ focused on work.
- honest, so it's easier to ask and know what is going on in his head.
- relatively very calm... compared to me.
- open to change.
- trustworthy.

CONS:

- rigid about some things and concepts, which sometimes leaves the other person feeling they get no recognition or understanding.
- sometimes a little too laidback, from what I've seen in group projects.
- sometimes closing off to ideas or some people until your personal views change.
- You should talk without about your opinions and experiences sometimes without being prompted. (eg. work) / you should express yourself more frequently (?)

Feedback:

- Before taking action, try and stop for a moment, think about what you wanna do, and then work on it. Think about your opinions, your feelings, then work. Think before doing.
- Be more consistent with your efforts.
- Be on time, and in turn be more reliable.
- Focus on individuality. What do you wanna say?
- Put in more efforts: more can be achieved.
- Push yourself to your limits, only then will you start to improve.
- Sketch more.

I've tried to implement these.

- Overthinking and doubting myself.

Late again to the English class, it felt so empty. I would rather journal than put it all out. My personal experiences are quite good with myself. Communication is really not my cup of tea.

All my things should be kept drained - to the paper, at least they might find purpose there. Letting it all out is not something I can do again.

4:30 am.

Dim light, essential words.

I can't help but make me feeling of being replaceable, of being just a vibrational memory; not of music, or of pictures, but simply of availability. Recently it has felt very worse. My whole has suffered, my mind has been all over the place, and I've been relapsing on past notes after a lot of recovery. My mind won't reach me, and it won't care for me. It feels like the movement it all leaves, I'll also leave. "Honor" will come to exist when things are over, when everything else is over. I need so much just now. The body is fresh, and I am in it. I can't share to myself. I cannot be very much with myself. But, I wish to change. It's hard, or it's pulling a stone through the wet soil, pulling it through my strong rope. The rope pulls me towards the stone, and the stone is pulled towards me. Push & pull.

Thinking about this however, doesn't help me in the slightest. The an effort in vain, but made for a story who's going to write around in it.

Reached morning, wrote most to my Mary the there... I don't wish to become dependent on her by it... I dream.

sitting in my room, did some bicep work

This past week has felt really weird. I'm proud to have made my first 500 words today. I have at least identified the problem now... I know about it before, but I always felt that just one tiny weight on your side, which would have led me to sideline. It's now, I can no longer sideline it because it's affecting my daily life in ways I could not imagine. I just finished a set of bicep work, then went to sleep, expecting my right one.

It's a self-correction problem. I think chipping away at every facet would at least help. The weirdest part of it all is: This time, it feels like I fixed it without anything.

well, feels like. I just try and get a little bit of fighting spirit back. The main battle started now... as every one that sends. Even if I end up committing suicide, I want to die a better person than the me right now.

of course yesterday night was been just a slightly effort sense of motivation, I end up feeling bad again today. My mind are remembering that I can fix this, picking up my notebook to write on and going through things slowly. It feels like me & everything now have a world between us. Knowing I want the well to be better, but I can't forget how it was built up in the first place. It feels bad, it hurts. I want to say, but the tears don't come suddenly.

From the clouds to the roses

Is there beauty in sadness?

like to be perfect one. The honest, these things I feel so beautiful. The the possibility of any soft has been swept up. But the world's don't interest me. Good doesn't interest me. I have a lot of pain, and that doesn't interest me.
Someday, like today, I really feel the painlessness. I feel like there is no pain in living. I see other people doing better than me, but you can smile. You still be same old ghost.

It's hard these days. I wish giving up was easier.

It feels like I'm the little girl who stops for me just, then. I would like to pour out all I've at this moment, if I could, but sometimes that feels like I have anything worthy to write. It feels in my head, or if it's tearing me. Then gone. It feels empty. There's not empty. What can I do with my life?

Picked up today. But I can think about it's hard she had paragraphs to write about that morning when, but didn't come when I was only just 5y old. I don't know anything anymore. I'm not talking or conversing about it again. I need there to get over it. I need to know... I hope it doesn't come back stronger. I need to remember not to hate. Not to seek for redemption or revenge. To live is to be hurt, consistently. I will grow stronger than this, eventually and happily. I hope you make it future over. Remember: you have no enemies.

I've been harder to comfort myself. I've been buying, been busy, been busy. Nothing seems to happen. I wonder if stopping the social media and just doing things would help? I worked out today. I almost succumbed to my problems yesterday. I almost didn't go much yesterday.

anything the wrong way. But... we're done for, I think. It was shipped past the point of no return. It went me back I wanted. Kidding... I sure hope it works in collaboration.
Again I feel the loss of a close friend. I could say have sitting all night or I could... do something else. Scratch. But I always keep coming back to the feeling that I have no interest in anything, no love as I figure them out. But she was not here, so... However, what happened? I... feel so sad. Even when she did not crack exactly I'm choosing what is up with me. Where I'm gone deep... everything. Anger, subconscious...
... feels like shit. I feel alone but... I'm here for myself. Can I'd good then.

You said everything precisely... without letting it

20th June 2024.

Aparshi & I not yesterday. Despite such a long time, we went back to what we usually do. I cried when I hugged her.
She said she knew I'd cry... I didn't. I talked to Witham.
Dude reads manga a ton, likes gore. Has watched... or rather... read dead web. Feels melancholic to be core honestly. She asked me didn't we decide not to be physical?
And I... think not since she has feelings for Jordan.
I should stop this... It will hurt us in the future...
hurt me. Badly. Last night we both slept at Jahani's place. Jahani enjoys her life I think. Currently 2 paint workers came to the house and are working on the shelf.
It feels very defeating... how do I keep going every day?
Small progress each day. In every aspect. I'm getting to know myself better. If anger turns to grief... is that an acceptable form of dealing with it? What do you do with grief? I want to talk more with people. I want to make new friends. I want to show myself in something other than these feelings because I'm tired of these feelings.

12:23 pm

If she hasn't replied yet... I'm sure she's just sleeping though but... shit kinda hurts not gonna lie. You are here forever.
I need a big hug. I need somebody to tell me that they will stay with me through thick and thin. I need love. I need gentleness.
But, it is wrong to ask that of other people. If I ask it from myself, would I be able to do it? Have I gone back to square 1?
I need someone to love. And I need someone to love me. We do something hard today. What is hard today? Not crying?
Staying happy? I liked it better when this house wasn't being worked on. I wonder if it is a reflection of me?

2nd July 2024.

12:12pm 1 July 2024.

I'm not really able to concentrate on work. Thoughts keep jumping in my head. I need to take care of myself. My ears need not grow for myself but... at the same time, I think I need to learn how to feel and let go. What, or how I feel doesn't describe or define me. At the end it is just me... on my own. Because not everyone is going to be here 24/7. It hurt when she said that she can't stop talking to him but... it is what it is. I don't really get what I wanted her to do either. Maybe being stronger and kinder would help a bit. Finis Vitae. Finis Vitae. Finis Vitae. Finis Vitae.

The palm of my hand.
holds enough for me
but not enough for my thoughts.

Life feels like its ending. I know it's not, but... it feels like it is. How do we say no? without disrespect? and without thinking too much at it?

I'm just hellah angry. Aaawshi fought with me. I'm so damn angry right now. I want to punch things. I want to die. I want to be dead. It hurts so damn much, man. I'll literally just kill myself. I don't give a shit any more, work, love, food, everything else can go to hell. If I could gouge my eyes out I would. But I'm just a coward running from things. Be calm, like water. But; I'm always the one who is hurt more. I'm always the one who cries more. What is my purpose, if not this? Deadish, painful, almost like death. I might as well kill myself. Do not come close to me for I might explode. A new forum with myself, ignore or part of me till I die. Anger gives pain. All is about her. All is about her and her pain, what she doesn't like. No one is willing to save me. flims Vitae.

no fruit, no stream,
stagnant water.
life everywhere, but none lived.
is this what they call heaven?

I need to come to terms with myself. Anger isn't going to help. Violence isn't going to help. The world can go die, but killing it won't help, what do I do about this anger in me? Channel it somehow work out? I don't have the courage to go back.
Suddenly tears won't come out. Crying in. better.
Making the death of yourself might be a wonderful thing. Not suicide but, betterment. Kill yourself everyday.

I want to see my mother. I want to hug her.
I want to see my father. I want to hug him.
I want to take back all the time, everything.
I want to drop out. I don't want to be here for long today. I want to cry it out. I want to disappear. I want to be perfect. If I could be perfect, it would all be perfect. A little life with money, and slight happiness maybe. Some work and some hope.

My mother would be disappointed in me, in who I have become. I could have been a great son. I wish I could have been. But I'm just wasting my time and money here. The fees for this semester has been paid. Might as well study.

Living is so living meaningly. My willpower is gone. None of it is how it used to be.

If I erase all of this, all of my like imperfect past... would it help? I'm no fun. I'm no help. I'm boring. I'm ugly. My teeth suck. I cry too much. I wish I was not sensitive. I wish I wasn't me. I want to hurt myself. I want to cut myself... maybe that would work. Better than suicide. The world is too painful here.

The break comes closer. I don't really see... the point of it all. She ain't here anymore. I don't see it.
She becomes a different person, and then gets angry at me for becoming a different person. I don't care about this course anymore. I don't care about this semester anymore. I don't care about her anymore. I don't care about me anymore. I don't care about my life anymore. I don't care about my health anymore.
Can I stuff myself with pleasure, and then hope to be dead? I'm the past week or so... what good has come of things? The power of pain has kinda made sense but... I don't want it. There's nothing else to do right now. People are coming by here. Fast, many.
I don't like it much, but I have no choice I want to be away from everyone. Finally a little calmer. But I know the moment I go back I will be filled with rage again.

I don't know from where to start, but first should be sorry. I am sorry for yesterday. I am sorry for today's behaviour of mine. I like you, I really do. I am a mess right now, want to cry in your arms. So badly.
Kai, what is I have been wanting to see you.
and I know I would cry, I would do something.
Just didn't expect that to be anger.
I am sorry, I had no reason to treat you like that, it was very wrong of me.
I want to talk to you, I want to work with you, in general I like being with you.
but I am not able to show it right?
What I don't like is with one behaviour
you forget every old action of mine.

But it's fine, I think we all have times just
'pavani son se upar chala jata hai'

Arnav, please don't push me away.

I really thought after everything, this today wouldn't happen again.

please stay with me,

don't go.

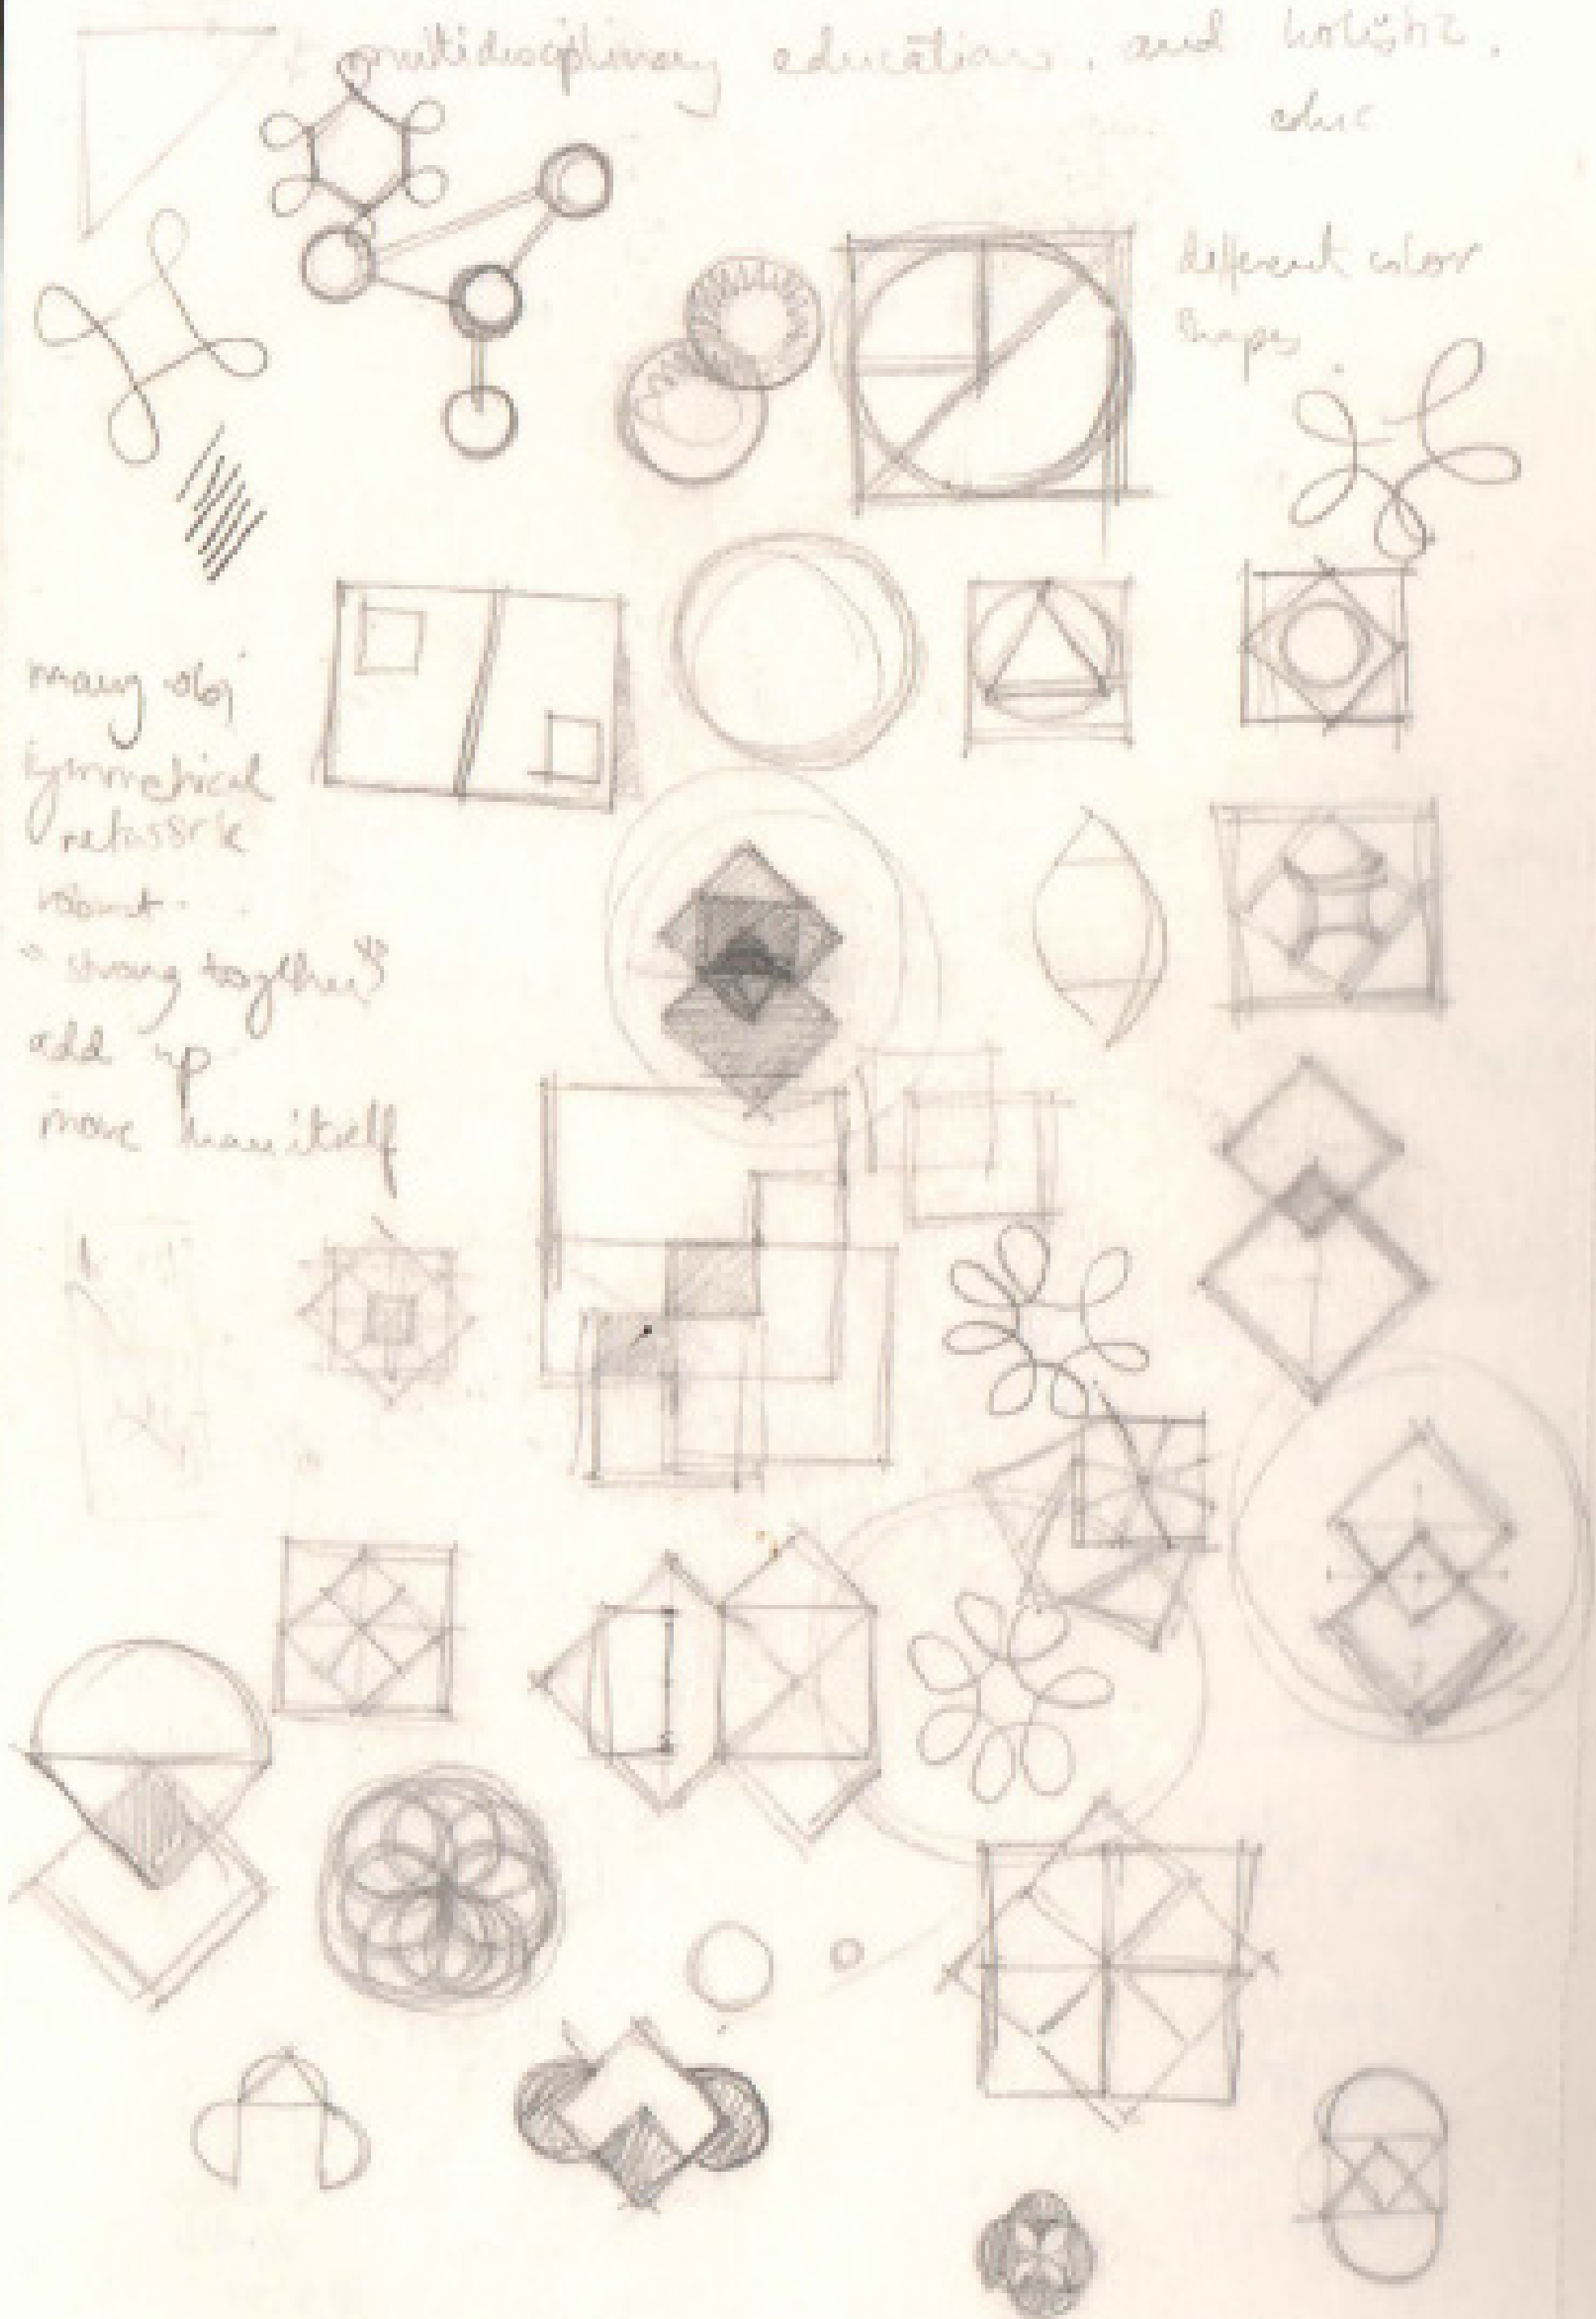

please.

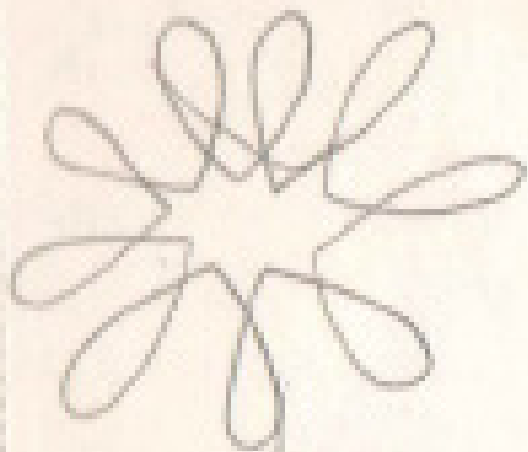

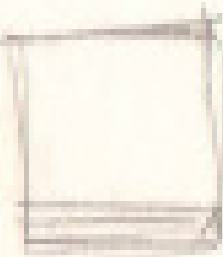

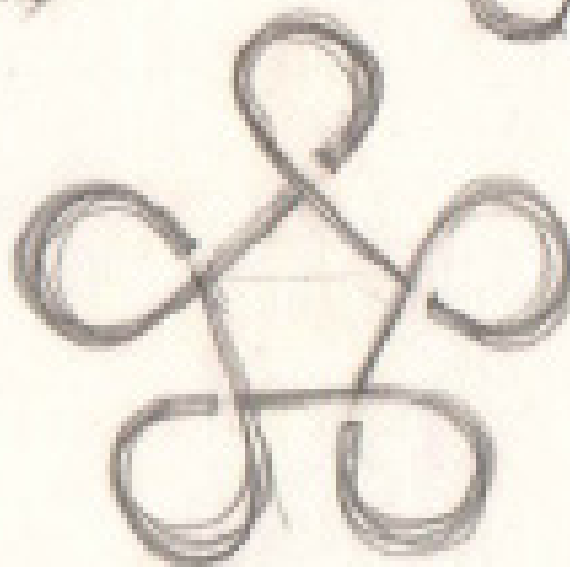

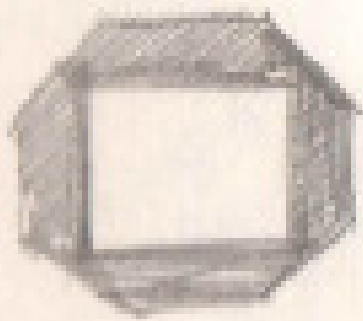

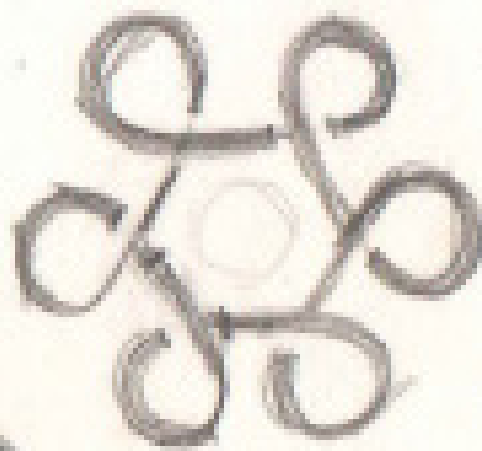

I'm not going anywhere.

Aarushi is sorting things out with Vidhan right now. The insecurities are tough to deal with. I wish I could let loose, let it all go through me. She just got up and left. A while ago, I just had lunch with the OG gang - Ishan, Preet, Ar and Shakkun. It slipped my mind that Aarushi didn't have lunch with her. Leave things be; for your own sake.

I just need new friends too. Humans work this way maybe.
I have been feeling nonchalant recently about everything.

I just submitted the pdf of the last course's assignment. I'm already late... and I didn't do my work either. I'm just kind of done... I wanna go to get my ears pierced. I don't really care... I'll go today.

Melissa's birthday cake is being cut. I don't really wanna go. But I'll go anyways because... what if I miss something. I want to get out. It feels alone... a lot. I would rather keep to myself. I don't have substance in me anymore. No poetry or anything else with flow out.

Day 3 ~~of product~~ Packaging Design.

two types of data. we need to figure shit out!
given like ... 20 minutes earlier. Starting at 11:05 am, 24 July.

The goal is to establish a good relationship between the packaging of the product and the user.

3rd Year take note note we should already have an established method of doing things.

24/07/24. 15:05.

Aarushi and I won't be able to go back to how we were.
I need to figure out a sustainable way of letting my emotions out. I need to talk more. I need to do more.
I am pretty disappointed with myself as well... I didn't want to hurt her like that but I did. All my emotions exploding together are what is causing the problem. I don't feel transparent with her though. I no longer wish to like her. I wish I didn't like her at all. I wish I didn't have these feelings within me. Grief is coming. I expected paradise... I forgot my own words. Paradise shall greet me again when I least expect her. I have trouble focusing on work. I don't really know what to do anymore. Dropout is something I cannot do... I can't face my parents like that. I want to run. I think I will run later today. Killing myself seems like a great option. I feel alone.
I will always be and feel alone, I think. So far, in the past 3 years, it has not faded. I feel it is a human emotion.

I think I just ended things with excessive right words.
Miserable. But why do I think it is hilarious? I don't really know what exactly it means to process I think. Words hurt.
Things hurt. It takes me a long time to build my self-esteem up to a level where I was comfortable with how I was seen. I think that time has passed me by. My future, my reality is the result of my actions upon the cards I can draw. Maybe... I hope... it would have turned out different.
But, no... I don't think I can handle any close relationship at all. The same thing happened with Anna and now with her...

I wonder if I victimize myself. I should admit my wrong. I know brooding over them will not help but I know they should be acknowledged. I should not have treated her harshly. I shouldn't have hit her. I should probably just talk myself. I wonder if I can buy a gun. I have heard guns are legal here in Punjab or... easier to find.
I should go back and work actually cause... I don't want to do this waste badly. I want to disappear.
It is lonely, because I made it so. Accept reality.
Time to go back to dying alone. It should take me a long while to get used to it but... I will hopefully get used to the world. Life will never be kind to unkind people and like she said... I think I am a piece of shit. Like Rhythm said, I'm not a perfectionist. Like she said, I'm not deserving of anything. Let's do this assignment and get out. I don't want to live anymore.

Fluis Vital.

15:35 4/7/24.

23:08 pm 24/07/24

Got to hear some pretty bad news today. Don't feel too good. Aarushi told me she made out with Michana... lol. Kat gaga... gauda wala. I'm not in the mood to be physically or emotionally with her or anyone else at all...

well... emotionally its fine as long as I don't get attached. I want to change my personality. I want to be better.

I smoked my first cigarette today. After I told the seller that it's my first time... he legit said "Kare do phir...". I insisted so he gave it to me. I bought two cigarettes... advanced kake hai. And I got one lighter.

I smoked half a cigarette, lit the second one, and left. I still have the lighter. Red in color.

Today was one of the shittiest days ever. I do not want to have a day like this again.

"Don't you wanna guess what I haven't told you? Why do you think bishram and I talk so much... do you think it's just because he likes me?"

I can't forget it. Yet, I want to.
I need to figure myself out. I need to express my anger and rage, or... just anger... and never let it get loose.

I plan to go through this alone. But,
I need to let go of anger and hurt.

How do you heal if you don't tend to your wounds?
